

4 August 2008

Circus Fun comes to Rugby Town

A 'Have A go' Circus will be heading to Rugby Town centre next week to entertain children and parents. If you've ever wanted to learn the skills of the circus then now's your chance. This special teaching circus arrives in Rugby Town centre on Thursday 14 August.

The Circus skills is all part of Rugby BID's Six Weeks of Summer Fun and with Robin Hood also making an appearance in a special Clinking Clanking Puppet Play there is something for everyone. The entertainment on Thursday will also see balloon making, giant bubbles and a walk-about marionette. The market place will be filled with street entertainment throughout the day.

"There's still so much going on in the town centre for the remainder of the summer holidays," said Aftab Gaffar, Operations Director at Rugby BID Company, who is responsible for the programme of activities. "We thought it would be a good idea to provide weekly activities for families during the summer holidays as we know it isn't always easy to entertain the children for six week's. We hope that our weekly entertainment has helped out and that we see lots of children and parents coming to enjoy the activities in our town centre."

The craft fair will continue to run on Wednesday in its usual slot for another week as part of the summer fun. Watch out for the remaining weeks activities to be announced shortly.