

9 September 2008

Rugby Town Centre gets fashionable

Models will be getting ready to strut their stuff as a Fashion show spectacular is about to hit Rugby Town centre. On Saturday 20th September starting from 11am Rugby shoppers are invited to the Clock Towers to come along and watch as the latest fashions are modelled on the catwalk.

Rugby FM will be presenting the fashion show supported by Clock Towers Shopping and The Rugby BID. The fashion spectacular will take place throughout the day on Saturday in the presentation area situated between Boots and Wilkinson's. This seasons latest fashions from some of Rugby Town's most popular high street stores will be there to show off their collections and get everyone talking. The Fragrance Shop, New Look, Xplicit, Boheme, Boots, Heaphys and Millets will all be featuring items from their stores at the fashion extravaganza. The models will be getting their hair and make-up makeovers courtesy of Mi Zteeq.

"This is definitely a show not to be missed," says Tony Spencer, Manager of the Clock Towers Shopping Centre. "With fashions on show from some of the most popular shops in Rugby it's a reason for everyone to get down to the Clock Towers Shopping Centre and take a look."