Rugby to host Young Enterprise Event in Town Centre

Rugby Town Centre will be hosting 'The Big Event' on Sunday 13th December from 11am until 3pm. The day will see local bands including The Dukes Jetty and The Absolutes taking to the stage and performing for the crowds. The event, being held in front of the Clock Tower, is being organised by Room 68, part of the Young Enterprise scheme, to raise money for the Town Thorns Nursing and Retirement Home in Rugby.

On the day there will be lots to keep visitors entertained with face painting, games, stalls, a hog roast and a host of local musicians coming together to perform throughout the day, this is an event not to be missed. There will also be the opportunity to take part in a raffle with local businesses donating all of the prizes.

Room 68 has been set up as part of the Young Enterprise scheme, which is designed to give youngsters the opportunity to gain experience in the world of commerce by setting up their own business. The company is made up of eight youngsters from a number of Rugby schools including Harriet Dainty from Rugby High and Josh Neal Bate from Bilton, who are the Managing Directors.

"We are really looking forward to 'The Big Event' and we hope that everyone in Rugby comes along to support us," said Harriet. "This is the first event Room 68, has organised and we are hoping there will be many more to come from our new event management company."

Make sure you don't miss out on hearing your favourite local band. The line up for 'The Big Event' is: The Dukes Jetty, Emma Stephenson, Adnaan Bhamla, King Hermit, Little Palm and The Absolutes.
